• Description ref n°8180 •

Located in a quiet environment and close to amenities (easily accessible by bicycle, for example), this house offers great development possibilities.

It comprises on the ground floor an entrance hall (9.3m²), a kitchen (17.9m²), a dining room (16.4m²), a living room (21.5m²), and an en-suite bedroom with a bathtub and toilet (15.6m²). A bright veranda (14.8m²) with an open fireplace and sink completes this living space.

Upstairs, the attic space can be converted into additional rooms according to your needs (the hot water tank is currently in the attic).

The house also has a practical cellar for storage.

Outside, you will find a large barn of approximately 120m² offering numerous possibilities (workshop, garage), as well as a well.

Habitable as is, this property requires renovations to unlock its full potential. It would be perfect for a family project or for buyers looking to combine old-world charm with a personal touch.
