• Description ref n°8496 •

Let yourself be captivated by the authentic charm of this former watermill, steeped in history and offering an enchanting setting in the heart of nature. A true invitation to imagine, create, and breathe new life into this unique place.

Upon entering, you'll find an entrance hall (16.4 sq m) leading to a utility room with a WC (18.6 sq m), ideal for organization and storage. The living/dining room (58.6 sq m), complete with a wood-burning stove, offers a welcoming space full of character, adjacent to a fully equipped kitchen (36.1 sq m) with an AGA range cooker, ready to be used again.

Upstairs, a spacious landing (15.9 sq m) leads to five bedrooms (18.1, 18.7, 18.4, 18.4, and 22 sq m), offering excellent potential for layout to accommodate family, guests, or create themed spaces according to your plans. The hallway (28.3 sq m) also leads to a bathroom in need of renovation (8 sq m). A second bathroom, also requiring renovation, serves two of the bedrooms, accessible from either side.

Outside, a terrace promises pleasant moments by the water. The ground floor, with its garage and, most notably, the mill wheel room, evokes the mill's former life and its very soul. A stone outbuilding, also in need of renovation, completes the property, as do the millrace and the adjoining land, offering a superb natural setting.

This mill is much more than just a property: it's a life project, a heritage adventure, a work of art to be reinvented. Renovation enthusiasts and lovers of exceptional properties, this is the place for you.

Other:

- New double-glazed wooden windows
- Central pellet heating to be installed
- Non-compliant septic system
- Roof and framework to be replaced
